

Here is one of Phyllis Car's wonderful historical sketches...

“1940: The baker enjoys a cuppa. Car’s gelding, Ruby, likes bread. He took one bite out of each loaf. Tony Car, who was fourteen and lived around the corner in McKenzie Street, took him back into his paddock. Fifty years later, Tony revealed the long kept secret to Mr. Batten.”